A NOTE

FROM WITHIN

VISIONS INSPIRE GOALS, WHICH PROVIDE PURPOSE FOR OUR LIVES.

Throughout 2010, our foundation officers and our board of directors took time to reflect on the upcoming decade, both its foreseeable challenges and its opportunities within the context of an uncertain and ever-changing global community.

We do indeed live in a world of increasing uncertainty. Just read the newspaper or turn on the evening news and you'll be reminded of just how true that statement is. When living with uncertainty, it can be comforting to focus on that which is certain. I am often reminded that the only thing that is certain is living and dying. Ultimately, they are the only commonalities shared by all of us in this world. It is in that context that we have formulated a vision for our future. Our 2020 Vision includes:

- A central campus from which Center for Hospice Care can provide all people living in our eight-county service area with access to quality hospice care, palliative care and bereavement support – regardless of ability to pay.
- An institute that prepares us all for the inevitabilities of life, and through which we work collaboratively to educate health care and social service professionals about how to provide compassionate care for the dying and the families they leave behind.
- A sustainable, long-term plan and a permanent home for the Palliative Care Association of Uganda (PCAU) through which to provide access to palliative care for all the people of Uganda, regardless of how remote the area in which they may live.

By achieving this 2020 vision, we may rest well, if only momentarily, in knowing that our work has indeed had meaning in the lives of those whom we may have touched, if only briefly, along life's journey.

STORIES AND ACTIVITIES FROM THE PAST QUARTER

25th Annual Walk for Hospice

Twenty-five years of walking for the cause was celebrated at the SILVER ANNIVERSARY WALK FOR HOSPICE on October 10, 2010.

Over 400 registered walkers and their families, along with a plethora of staff, volunteers and entertainers converged on Newton Park in Lakeville. Greeted by a beautiful sunny day, participants enjoyed an afternoon of exercise, entertainment and refreshments.

Presenting Sponsor for this anniversary event was GMI Group of Plymouth. Chris Stoler and the administration at GMI have been Walk sponsors for over 15 years, so when the opportunity came this year to be the first ever WALK PRESENTER, they quickly grabbed the honor. According to Walk Committee Chairman, Debra Mayfield, "it is strong support like this that has contributed to the longevity of this event."

The motivation for participating in this annual event is as diverse as the walkers themselves. Walkers come from all across the United States and from all age groups. Bobbie Chase, of Mishawaka, participated in the event for the first time this year in memory of her mother, Sylvia Sherrod. Bobbie enlisted the help of her adult children, Michael and Donna, and together their team collected over $1,000 in donations from all across the United States.

Walkers of all ages enjoy a beautiful fall day as the 25th Walk for Hospice commences at Newton Park.

The Gangloffs, Tammi and Ted, used the Hospice Foundation's new online fundraising tool to raise money for hospice care. This is what Ted wrote on his fundraising page:

"On November 29, 2008 I lost my dad to cancer. This was an extremely difficult time for Dad and our family. The help we received from the Center for Hospice Care was a blessing. They taught us what to expect as the cancer progressed and how to administer pain medications. They sent a nurse for check ups and gave phone support 24/7 so Dad could stay at home where he was surrounded by his family. God bless their volunteers and staff. They sent a volunteer to sit with Dad so Mom could do the needed shopping. For a short time the 24 hour a day care that Dad needed got to be overwhelming for us so we used the Hospice House where Dad was cared for by doctors and staff around the clock. To me this is a priceless service offered by a not-for-profit organization. I'm glad to help raise money for the Center for Hospice Care. On October 10th we will join the Walk for Hospice and I'm asking you to make a donation. Thank you! "

The Gangloffs raised nearly $1,000 using the Internet to become our largest online fundraising team.

Walkers Cheryl and Denny Correll experienced hospice care with Cheryl's mom, Betty Ebner. They explained that among the many benefits was the fact that Betty was able to spend every minute with her favorite side-kick, Precious, who was with her to the very end.

Fundraising dollars raised in this event enable Center for Hospice Care (CHC) to continue to provide physicians, nurses, social workers, spiritual care counselors, home health aides and trained community volunteers to improve the quality of living for our patients and families facing progressive, life-limiting illnesses. CHC also provides grief counseling, art therapy, a children's grief camp and community education free of charge to hundreds of people each week in our community. Because of the commitment of everyone involved in this 25th Anniversary event, a total of $43,283.53 was raised to provide support to CHC patients and their families!

The success of this event would not be possible without the involvement of area businesses and individuals in the community who donated time, talent and prizes. THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

Foundation CEO Elected National Board Chairman

Mark Murray, President/CEO

Mark Murray, President/CEO of Center for Hospice Care (CHC) and the Hospice Foundation, was recently elected to a two-year term as Chairman of the Board of Directors for the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization (NHPCO), and officially took office on January 1, 2011.

According to Murray, "Our hospice program has always shared the NHPCO mission of helping individuals and families facing serious illness, death and grief to experience the best that humankind can offer."

With 52,000 members, including 3,700 hospice and palliative care provider members, NHPCO is the oldest and largest membership organization representing hospice and palliative care programs and professionals in the United States. NHPCO members care for over 90% of the nation's more than 1.6 million hospice patients.

Murray has served on the 24-member national board since 2006 when he was first elected as the Great Lakes Geographic Area Director representing the interests of the 589 hospice program members in a six state region. He previously served in the office of Secretary and has been a member of the NHPCO Executive Committee for the past three years.

"For more than 30 years NHPCO has led the efforts to mobilize social change for improved care at the end of life, not just in the United States, but in places around the world," says Murray. "After working at a member hospice program for the last 21 years, it's an honor to be elected NHPCO Chairman of the Board."

In his role as Board Chairman, Murray also serves on the boards of various NHPCO affiliate organizations, including: Hospice Action Network, a Washington, DC political advocacy organization; FHSSA, formerly known as the Foundation for Hospices of Sub-Saharan Africa; and the National Hospice Foundation, where he served in the office of Treasurer during 2010. NHPCO and its affiliates are based at the new National Center for Care at the End of Life in Alexandria, VA.

A former Chairman of the Board of the Indiana Hospice and Palliative Care Organization, Murray continues to serve on that Board and chairs its Public Awareness Committee. He also serves as a member of the Indiana Home Health and Hospice Services Council since being appointed to that post by Governor Mitch Daniels in 2006.

Murray has served as President/CEO of the Center for Hospice Care since 1997, following seven years as Vice President.

CHC Opens Area's First Palliative Care Center

The Center for Hospice Care has expanded its palliative care services into the community with the recent opening of its outpatient Palliative Care Center, located at 4220 Edison Lakes Parkway in Mishawaka. The first of its kind in north central Indiana, it offers patients and families an opportunity to receive the physical, emotional and spiritual support necessary to improve the quality of living.

People who learn that they are very ill, as well as those living with chronic pain, frequently become depressed. As a result, according to a study recently published in The New England Journal of Medicine, this state of mind serves to reduce life expectancy. Patients whose pain is treated often sleep better, eat better and communicate more with relatives.

Patient- and family-centered palliative care optimizes quality of life by anticipating, preventing and treating suffering. Palliative care is not limited to care for the terminally ill or dying. Anyone with a serious, life-limiting or chronic illness can benefit from palliative care, which can extend from a few hours to several years.

There is often confusion between palliative care and hospice care. The most significant difference is that palliative care patients may simultaneously pursue active curative treatment. Palliative care includes aggressive symptom management as well as emotional support and assistance.

Palliative care referrals may be made by any physician, preferably at an early stage of treatment. Once a referral is made, an appointment is scheduled with one of the agency's medical directors who will examine the patient and then provide a consultation to discuss the options for care.

Once a treatment plan is prescribed, the patient is served by an interdisciplinary team, which is comprised of a board certified palliative care physician, a registered nurse, a social worker, physical therapist, spiritual counselor, dietician and a home health aide. This team then collaborates to determine how best to address the patient's needs for comfort care and support.

A LOOK BACK

FHSSA Partnerships Make a Difference in the Lives of the Dying Throughout Africa

The facts are overwhelming. Every day, nearly 7,000 people die from HIV/AIDS in sub-Saharan Africa. More than 35 million women, children and men in this region have already died of AIDS. FHSSA is working to ensure the dying and their families find compassion and relief from suffering at the end of life.

Through FHSSA's innovative Partnership Initiative more than 52,000 patients received quality care and services in 2008 by linking African hospices and palliative care providers with American hospices and organizations. Currently, FHSSA has 90 active partnerships in 16 countries and 27 states in the U.S. – and these partners touch thousands of lives. These accomplishments prove that there is great strength when many individuals work together. While FHSSA is launching new partnerships on an ongoing basis, there are more than 100 African hospices waiting for a U.S. partner. Only with the support and involvement of individuals and organizations will FHSSA help meet this need.

Worldwide attention and funding in response to the AIDS pandemic is focused on many necessary areas such as vaccine development, prevention and anti-retroviral medication availability. Yet, little attention is being paid to the care and support of the dying and their families. This is a central focus for FHSSA in advancing its Partnership Initiative and the National Hospice Foundation (NHF) is working to raise support that FHSSA desperately needs to continue its mission of building partnerships to enhance compassionate care in Africa.

In 2008, Center for Hospice Care (CHC) was selected to partner with the Palliative Care Association of Uganda (PCAU). Since that time, CHC staff have made two visits to Uganda and Rose Kiwanuka, PCAU's National Coordinator, has visited the CHC's programs. Through a grassroots effort, CHC employees established an employee giving program that provides more than $8,000 in annual support for PCAU. These funds, when combined with a grant from the Hospice Foundation, enabled PCAU to move from a borrowed one room office at the African Palliative Care Association to its own building and compound in February 2010.

CHC Staff Improving the Quality of Living in Uganda

Little did Rose Kiwanuka realize the impact she would have on staff at Center for Hospice Care (CHC) when she visited the South Bend area for two weeks in the fall of 2009. As the National Coordinator for the Palliative Care Association of Uganda (PCAU), Rose was in town to learn about the American approach to hospice care and to share the work of PCAU in its efforts to bring, as Rose describes it, "culturally appropriate palliative care to all Ugandans."

From her visit, CHC's Uganda Impact Fund was born. In its first year in existence, this staff giving program raised more than $8,000 through direct gifts and voluntary bi-weekly payroll deductions from more than 50 participating CHC staff members. In addition, more than $3,000 was raised from various community supporters during her visit.

With these gifts, along with a grant from the Hospice Foundation, and through funds raised from a staff-funded silent auction, PCAU was able to fund two mission-critical initiatives that would otherwise not have been possible: the leasing of a new home for PCAU (pictured above), which is located in a safe and secure gated compound in the nation's capital, Kampala; and two fully funded scholarships for students to complete the Clinical Palliative Care Course (CPCC) at Hospice Africa Uganda.

Clinical Palliative Care Students

Staff of the Center for Hospice Care (CHC) supported two students to undertake the Clinical Palliative Care Course (CPCC) through its Uganda Impact Fund, a fund which was started by CHC staff members in late 2009. The fund's purpose is to provide financial support to the Palliative Care Association of Uganda (PCAU) as it works to expand its outreach to provide palliative care provision to remote districts of the country.

As a result of their generosity, staff giving to the Uganda Impact Fund totaled $8,008.50 in 2010 alone, which resulted in PCAU's ability to fund the students to complete the nine-month Clinical Palliative Care Course (CPCC), which is offered by Hospice Africa Uganda at a cost of $3,750 USD each. Those students have now both graduated and returned to their places of work to assume leadership roles in the delivery of palliative care in their districts. The new CHC-supported graduates are:

Mr. Steven Nyakojo Abetegeka was a Clinical Officer from Kibaale district. As a result of his successful program completion, his title has now changed to Clinical Palliative Care Officer in charge of Kibaale Health Center III. As the result his graduation from Uganda's program, he is now a recognized prescriber of morphine, the drug of choice for pain control. Health care workers who identify patients with palliative care needs will now be able to refer the patients to him for treatment.

Ms. Clare Muhumuza has successfully completed Uganda's program and returned to her district, the Mubende district, as well. Now that she holds the CPCC Diploma, she too is a recognized prescriber of morphine and has been placed in the district hospital and charged with the development of the hospital's palliative care provision. In fact, she will be responsible for spearheading and supporting palliative care service provision throughout the entire Mubende district.

Hanna O'Brien: Volunteering in Uganda

Tell us about yourself... Who is Hanna O'Brien?

I am a junior at Notre Dame. I come from a small town west of Chicago, called Warrenville. I love to volunteer, read books and learn, and I have been told I have a great sense of humor.

What is your major field of study at Notre Dame?

I am a College of Science Pre-Professional Studies and Anthropology double major. I aspire to become a doctor, and bring health care to a third-world marginal community, so I may also study and learn from that culture.

How did you first learn about PCAU?

Notre Dame's Africa Faith and Justice Network and the Ford Family Program sponsored a discussion with PCAU's National Coordinator, Rose Kiwanuka. Before this talk, I had never even heard of palliative care!

Why was this type of an internship opportunity appealing to you?

Experiencing Ugandan palliative care provided me a unique opportunity for an educational and personal curiosity: understanding the relationship of Western medicine with African culture. It allowed me to learn about the culture's interpretation of Western medical practices in palliative care, and how it cooperates with traditional healing. In palliative care, the patient's and the patient's family's understanding of death is of great importance, in addition to a unique holistic approach of addressing all social, spiritual, and psychological issues.

Describe some of the activities in which you were involved during your internship.

At Hospice Africa Uganda and Hospice Jinja, I observed staff routines, went on home visits, discussed with staff members about their catchment conditions, and interacted with the adult and child patients at the weekly daycare. Interacting with the children at the Cancer Institute Children's Ward at Kampala's Mulago Hospital, I learned how palliative care varies for children and how the patient's family handles the stress of having a sick, young child. In Buyijja Forest, I observed the traditional healing school, Prometra Uganda.

Who was the most interesting (or intriguing) person you met in Uganda? What made him/her memorable?

At Hospice daycare, I bonded with a young, female patient born HIV-positive. When her mother died from HIV, her step-mother kicked her out of the house. Destitute and ill, but incredibly courageous and independent, this young girl reminded me of all the Ugandan children who are forced to grow up too early. Meeting her exposed me to the strength of these children and the struggles they face.

What was the most interesting place you visited?

The first place I think of when I reflect on my trip is my family's home in Makindye. My family and all the neighbors were amazing, welcoming people who took great care of me and really helped me learn more intimately about Uganda, its family dynamics, and its culture.

What was the biggest surprise or aha! that you encountered?

The biggest "aha!" for me came when I realized the sheer devotion of the hospice staffs to providing the best holistic care for each patient. The health care workers are so committed to learning from one another and others in order to improve their clinical practices. They do an amazing job at communicating to discuss each patient's situations and allowing all to consult and assist.

Did the experience live up to your expectations?

To be honest, I prepared myself for Uganda by trying to clear my mind and heart of all expectations. Of the basic expectations I did have, my experience was way beyond and above what I expected. I met so many inspiring people, and we have so much to learn from Ugandans!

What was the biggest lesson you learned as the result of this experience?

I learned not to take anything for granted – from access to clean water to the opportunity for formal education. I also learned something much deeper than that; that you cannot allow cultural predispositions to cloud your understanding of what is important to a culture different from your own. This came not from judgment of lifestyle, but a realization, from families living in extreme poverty and suffering, of how to find pure joy in living simply.

What do you plan to do now that you have returned, and will you go back to Uganda?

I will be assisting Notre Dame in making my field project with PCAU a permanent summer internship for future undergraduates! I also hope to fundraise for the organizations through student club, Global Health, ND. This trip inspired me so much that I plan to pursue palliative care in my future.

In Service to a Better World

Father Richard Warner is one of those rare individuals whose presence fills those around him with serenity, peace and the belief that all things are possible. He is a person who inspires others to become better, who makes a powerful and positive difference through his actions, and in doing so leaves a lasting impact on each life he touches.

His endless, selfless devotion to the Catholic Church, the University of Notre Dame and the Congregation of the Holy Cross reflects his commitment to their worthy and humanitarian ideals. Described by others as a passionate, tireless, loyal leader, he has led a life of service.

After graduating from Notre Dame in 1962, Fr. Warner studied theology at Catholic University in Santiago, Chile, where he obtained his licentiate degree in 1966. Later that year he was ordained in Lakewood, Ohio.

From 1967 to 1973 he taught English and theology at St. George's College, one of the premier educational institutions in Chile, where he also served in the administration. In 1973 he became the provincial treasurer and member of the Provincial Council for the Indiana Province of the Congregation and was subsequently elected provincial superior in 1979, serving in that office for nine years.

For the next 21 years, Fr. Warner was Director of Campus Ministry at the University of Notre Dame, which promotes, encourages and engages all aspects of faith life on campus. He also served as Counselor to former Notre Dame president, Fr. Edward Malloy, C.S.C.

In 2010 Fr. Warner was elected Superior General of the Congregation of the Holy Cross and has assumed leadership for the congregation and its work throughout the world from its headquarters in Rome. He is a Corporate Member of Holy Cross Family Ministries, and received an honorary doctorate of law degree from Notre Dame in 1987.

His service beyond the congregation and university is notable as well. Fr. Warner is past Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Center for the Homeless and Memorial Health System.

Whether in Rome, in Chile or in South Bend, Fr. Warner's caring, compassionate influence has made the world a better place and continues on through those he has inspired.

2011 Helping Hands Dinner Honoring Rev. Richard V. Warner, C.S.C.

More than 375 guests gathered at the Hilton Garden Inn on May 4th to honor Rev. Richard V. Warner, C.S.C., this year's Helping Hands Award recipient, at the 27th annual event.

Co-chairs Phil and Mary Newbold began the evening by recognizing the many contributions Father Warner has made to not only the local community but around the world.

Hospice Foundation President/CEO, Mark Murray, noted that, "back in 1980, we made a pledge to this community that no person who was eligible and desired hospice services would be turned away due to an inability to pay. This is still true today, thanks to you and people like you, and because of special events like this annual Helping Hands dinner. Proceeds from tonight's dinner go directly to our Hospice Foundation and permit us to continue to provide hospice and other supportive services to people and families regardless of diagnosis, whether or not they have health insurance, or an ability to pay for their care. We are so grateful to each of you here tonight who help us achieve our mission."

Prior the dinner being served in the Fleur de Lis Ballroom, Father Joe Carey, C.S.C. gave the invocation. Music during the cocktail party and dinner was provided by local jazz trio Knapp, Probst & Wolfe.

Following the dinner, Phil Newbold introduced the tribute video, "In Service to a Better World." The video, produced and directed by PentaVison, featured family, friends and associates of Fr. Warner. The Helping Hands Award was then presented by Terry Rodino, Chairman of the Center for Hospice Care, and Catherine Hiler, Chairman of the Hospice Foundation.

Thanks to the efforts of Mary and Phil Newbold, along with the dedication of the dinner committee, the event raised $148,000 for the Hospice Foundation, bringing the total raised in the event's 27 years to $2,572,856.

Many thanks also go to Poppies, Inc. for the lovely tulip arrangements as well as to Lou Behre for providing his time and talent for the 20th year as the evening's Event Coordinator.

The 28th Annual Helping Hands Dinner is scheduled for Wednesday, May 2, 2012.

HEART OF HOSPICE

HOSPICE INVESTMENT AND DONATION INFORMATION

Donor Profile: Brian and Jeannelle Brady

When they learned that Center for Hospice Care was considering building a hospice care facility in Elkhart, Brian and Jeannelle Brady were eager to step forward to help make it a reality. Their business enterprises have a regional presence that employ hundreds of people in the area, so reaching out to the Elkhart community is especially important to the couple. Brian says, with “Mark Murray’s guidance, the Center for Hospice clearly has the best business model out there in the nonprofit sector. Murray’s team is incredibly effective -- superior, in fact. What separates CHC is its service delivery and cost-effective strategy. Your charitable dollar stays in the community and does an incredible amount of good!”

For Brian and Jeannelle, it made sense to leverage their skills and relationships and CHC’s model to help extend CHC’s physical presence in the Greater Elkhart area. Feeling blessed with a healthy family and successful business, the couple says they feel compelled to share their time and resources in a meaningful way. Jeannelle, who has served on the organization’s board of directors since 2005 says, “We wanted to make sure the Center for Hospice can continue to tell their story here. We want people here to benefit from the services and support CHC offers to families during the most difficult time in life.”

The Brady’s are once again lending their support to the Elkhart campus building efforts. The final pieces of the campus, the outdoor areas, are still to be completed and the Brady’s have been instrumental in getting the word out in the community about how the outdoor spaces will compliment what already exists. They continue to educate people about the services the facility offers as well.

Both Brian’s and Jeannelle’s fathers passed away from cancer several years ago, never able to benefit from hospice services. The Brady’s want people to know that no matter what one’s background, Center for Hospice Care’s services are available to anyone facing a progressive life limiting illness regardless of their ability to pay. “It’s not about giving up,” Jeannelle adds, “it’s about living the fullest life possible up until our last moments here on earth. We are proud and thrilled to be a part of the Center for Hospice!”

Community Corner

The Hospice Foundation is grateful for the generosity of the many groups that support its mission through their independent fundraising efforts, grantsmanship and donations. Although we cannot recognize every effort, we are pleased to take this opportunity to recognize the following and thank all of those in the community who support our agency.

Hoosier Spring Company sponsored "The Coffee Mugs for Charity" resulting in $110.00 donated to CHC.

Randy Sheneman directed $500.00 from the proceeds of the 2010 Niles Haunted House Scream Park to CHC in memory of his father Charles Fredrick Sheneman.

Kappa Kappa Kappa, Inc. (Beta Delta Chapter) contributed $300 to Center for Hospice Care in support of our mission.

Club 15 held a golf tournament and raised $1,500.00 for CHC.

Trinity Information Services staff at Trinity Health paid to wear jeans to work for a "Jeans Dollars" event that raised $652.00.

The Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Elkhart shared $50.15 with CHC, which is half the cash offering from a Sunday morning service.

CHC was the recipient of $1,000 donated by The Knights of Columbus, Bremen Council 9540 of St. Dominic's. The group held its 4th Annual Charity Golf Outing at Sprig-O-Mint Golf Course in Bremen and designated proceeds and gifts to benefit our agency.

In lieu of sending Christmas cards to their customers, LL Geans Construction Company donated $350.00 to Center for Hospice Care in their honor.

Due to Internal Revenue Service tax regulations, we may only issue written documentation for donations made payable to and/or processed directly by Center for Hospice Care or the Hospice Foundation. Donations made and/or processed via a third party may not be eligible for a charitable tax donation. If you have any questions regarding charitable contributions, contact Mike Wargo, Chief Operating Officer, at (574) 243-2059 or wargom@centerforhospice.org. For specific tax advice, you should visit the IRS website at www.irs.gov or contact your tax advisor.

Red Knights

The Red Knights Motorcycle Club (RKMC), Indiana Chapter 8, held a fundraising ride to benefit Center for Hospice Care. Lead sponsor, Hoosier Harley Davidson of Elkhart, provided the venue for the event. Participants completed a 70-mile route then returned to enjoyed live music, great food and family activities. The RKMC is an international group made up of firefighters, active or retired, volunteer or industrial. They chose CHC to benefit from the proceeds of the ride because of the impact that hospice care has had on many of their members. This inaugural ride was in memory of Ralph Ankrom, father of member Jim Ankrom. The event raised $800 for CHC! The club intends to continue supporting CHC with an annual ride each summer, dedicating each ride to a different member's loved one.

Eye Care Associates of Michiana

The doctors at Eye Care Associates of Michiana asked their staff to do something good for the community instead of purchasing gifts for them this past Christmas. One of the staff members donated a week's accommodations at a resort as a prize to be raffled off. For each chance that a staff member purchased he/she got to name a charity to receive the proceeds of the raffle. The winning ticket was drawn at the Annual Christmas Party and the winner then drew the winning charity ticket. Center for Hospice Care was chosen and presented with a check for $680. What great Christmas Spirit!

American Girl Tea

The Hearth at Juday Creek, a senior living facility in Granger, held an American Girl Tea this past summer and presented $500 in proceeds and donations from the event to Center for Hospice Care. Margo Morgan, Sales and Marketing Director at The Hearth said that CHC was chosen as the recipient of the donation for two reasons - our mission and quality of service - both of which help them carry out their goal of providing the best services they can for their residents at all stages of life. The tea was the first of its kind at The Hearth and a great source of enjoyment for both the staff and guests.

The highlight of the event was a drawing for "Lanie" an authentic American Girl doll. Pictured is the happy winner of the doll, Alexis Oden and her mother Natalie.

Circle of Caring

To further our mission to improve the quality of living for those we serve regardless of one's ability to pay, The Hospice Foundation implemented a donor giving program: Circle of Caring. Membership in the Circle of Caring entitles donors to benefits based on the level of the donor's cumulative annual support. CHC and The Hospice Foundation express their appreciation and honor our members in the following societies:
