

NAGC Fall Conference & Webcast

NAGC'S Half-day Webcast on Traumatic Death

November is Children's Grief Awareness Month. Join Us for This Live Webcast on Children's Grief!

For Children's Grief Awareness Month, the Center for Education & Advance Care Planning in collaboration with the National Alliance for Grieving Children will host a Fall Webcast on Children's Grief.

Supporting Youth and Schools After a Community Tragedy Death, dying, and bereavement are unfortunate themes that appear almost daily in news headlines. Rarely is there any discussion on a national level as to how community tragedy impacts the lives of children and teenagers.

This webcast will provide insight into the challenges faced by children and teenagers impacted by a traumatic death.

Session I: "Seasons of Love: Measuring a Child's Life after Suicide"

Presented by: Janet E. McCord, PhD, FT

This presentation will offer a brief overview of what suicide is and isn't, and then review the literature on grief after suicide. Strategies for supporting children, teens and families after a suicide will be discussed.

Session II: "The Suffocated Grief of Marginalized Youth Bereaved by Homicide Loss: On Honoring our Ethical Responsibilities"

Presented by: Tashel C. Bordere, PhD, CT

Drawing from research and case examples, we will explore ways in which loss and grief processes are uniquely complicated in deaths by homicide within multiple contexts - developmental, social, historical and geo-political contexts. Participants will learn about culturally conscientious and responsive strategies and strength-based practices in ethically sound work with marginalized youth and communities.

Session III: "Partnering with Schools to Support Grieving Students"

Presented by: Debbie Hoy and Dr. William G. (Bill) Hoy, D.Min., FT

In addition to the practical evidenced-based practices for psychotherapy in loss and trauma Dr. Hoy will offer in this workshop, he and his wife will talk about their personal journey of integrating this loss into their lives. They will talk poignantly about the impact on themselves, their adult children, and their friendship circle, as well as the ways they continue to grapple with meaning in the shadow of this event.
